

THEORY OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

Subject code: DKNB_JETA016

Requirement: Exam

Subject code: 3

Term: 2023/2024. 1.

Class schedule info: Thursday 09.25-11.05 (AK1_035)

Lecturer: Dr. habil. Egresi, Katalin (associate professor)

TOPICS OF THEORY OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

- 1) Introduction. What is International Politics? Differences between International Relations and International Politics
- 2) Theories of International Politics I) realism and idealism (liberal institutionalism and realist theoretical school)
- 3) Theories of International Politics II) civilizations (Spengler, Toynbee, Huntington). The concept of civilizations, cultural/civilizational identities in world politics
- 4) Theories of International Politics III) constructivism and radical school. The Development of realist and idealist paradigm
- 5) The State and the foreign policy: power and security
- 6) The balance of power: hegemony/ hierarchy of International Politics
- 7) Written exam (1)
- 8) International organizations and civil actors of International Politics
- 9) Globalization/ Global Governance
- 10) War, peace and terrorism
- 12) Global problems: migration, human rights and environmental policies.
- 13) The International Politics of Identities
- 14) Written exam (2)

Requirement of course:

- two written exams (26. October; 7. December)

Textbook:

Understanding International Relations. Third edition. (ed. Chris Brown - Kirsten Ainley), Palgrave MacMillan, New York, 2005. In. <https://szelearning.sze.hu/course/view.php?id=857>